RED ROSE IS SURE OF BIG HOUSE

Curtain Rises Promptly at 8:30 and It Is Well to Be on Hand Early.

The attraction at the Elks' theater tonight will be John C. Fisher's production of the smart musical comedy, "The Red Rose," which comes here direct from the Globe theater, New York, with a notable cast, including Zoe Barnett, Sidney Broughton, Grace Ellsworth, Sydney DeGray, Marquette de Von, Menotti Frascona, Joseph W.
Standing and Olive Depp. "The Red Rose" is the work of Harry B. and Robert H. Smith, with music by Robert Hood Bowers. The production has been staged by R. H. Burnside, the celebrated stage director of the New York Hippodrome, and the dances have been arranged by Jack Mason.
The organization is under the personal direction of John C. Fisher, the noted producer of "Florodora," "The Silver Slipper," "Sun Toy" and many other of the highest musical successes. In fact, all the people associated with "The Red Rose" are foremost in their respective lines, which gives promise of a performance of the highest class.
The presenting company is unusually large and includes a stunning chorus and ballet. There has been a very heavy advance sale and the big company will be greeted by a capacity house.

Lame back may come from overwork, cold settled in the muscles of

WHITNEY BROTHERS
WILL BE HERE
FRIDAY

First of Brilliant Course of Lycium Entertainments to Be Given at the Elks' Theater.

For the second time the city of Albuquerque is to be favored with an entertainment by the famous Whitney Brothers.

Next Friday night at the Elks' opera house they will appear in an entirely new program and of course they will delight the audience as they did on their previous visit to the city.

An unusually large number of season tickets are already in the hands of patrons, and the most successful course of season entertainments ever held in this city is assured.

Those who wish single tickets for the first attraction in the splendid course can obtain them at Matson's December 12th, beginning at 8 o'clock in the morning.

The Whitney Brothers Quartet will appear at the Elks' opera house next Friday evening in no noted throughout the country that the Victor talking machine company has records of about twenty of their selections on sale everywhere. Their parents were both musicians and their lives have been filled with music from early infancy.

None of them can recall a time when they did not sing, and Alvin even sang solos in public at the age of four.
Edwin's tastes are divided. "Speaking Pieces" had always a fascination for him and from the time he could talk he was always at it.

The first concert ever given by the Whitney Brothers was in August, 1901, at the Silver Lake, New York Chautauque. Their father, then pastor of the Warsaw church, had agreed to fill one night's entertainment with Warsaw talent. For one reason or another all those whom he had council on went back on him. In despair he turned to his sons for help. This they gladly gave and presented the Chautauque with a full evening of quartets, solos and readings with great success.

The voices of the Whitney's blend perfectly. Their solo work is a feature of each program, while Edwin Whitney is sure to make one of the hits of the evening with his readings.
On many of the largest courses in the country, this quartet has been brought back time and time again.
In several instances as many as six times which proves their ever widening popularity.
